

Big Idea

Our best life is experienced when we "seek first the kingdom of God". That means "God's way of doing things". When we allow ourselves to "compartmentalize" our lives, we miss out on God's leadership and partnership 24/7. Are you more of a "scheduler" or a "go with the flow" kind of person?

Get Started

"All you need to say is simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one"
- Matthew 5:37 (NIV)

"But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." - Matthew 6:33 (NIV)

Discussion Questions

1. Being over scheduled usually means that we have little or no margin in our life for new things. How does being over scheduled make you feel?
2. You've heard it said before, "You prioritize what is important to you." What is your priority when it comes to scheduling things on your calendar?
3. What are some things in your life that you are always sure to make time for?

4. Our schedule tends to say less about what we want to do and more about who we want to become. What do you think your schedule says about who you want to become?
5. What is something that you can do this week to take steps towards or continue to seek God first?

Prayer

As you begin to create a schedule that puts God first, ask God to help you realize what it is that is important to Him. Pray for peace in your schedule and for the clarity to be led by the Holy Spirit.
